ARRESTED AGAIN.

Swindler Neely Taken in at New York and Locked Up.

New York, May 22.—Charles F. W. Neely, former chief financial agent of the Transvaal government in London, was arrested today by a United States marshal on a warrant issued by the United States court, charging him with the wrongful conviction of $15,000.

The prisoner was arrested before Judge Lombard, where his counsel made application for a reduction of the $50,000 bail, but it was denied. Neely was then taken to the Ludlow street jail. The order of arrest was based on the affidavit of Col. George H. Burton, inspector general of the United States army, stationed in Cuba.

In an affidavit Col. Burton states that on April 24, he was ordered by Major General Wood to examine the accounts and vouchers in the department of posts in Cuba, passed upon and audited by the assistant auditor from the inspection of the office. Col. Burton, according to the affidavit, examined the accounts and found irregularities that made it necessary for him to visit Neely's office to examine his accounts. After Neely learned his accounts were to be examined he left Havana on a steamer for Mexico.

Burton further alleges that he learned from E. G. Rathbone, director of posts in Cuba that Neely had gone to New York. A cable dispatch was sent to Neely to return but he paid no attention to it. Concluding Col. Burton says:

"My investigation demonstrated that Charles F. W. Neely, an agent of the Transvaal government, has received the sum of $122,556.62 of which he has deposited $77,281.47 and the balance amounting to the sum of $45,275.15 or any part thereof cannot be found, and that the said sum remains entirely unaccounted for."

The convention endorsed President McKinley's administration, demanded that the territorial form of government be extended to Alaska, declared for the removal of the capital from Sitka to Juneau, asked the government that a direct cable from Alaska to Puget Sound be laid, and demanded that lighthouses be erected in Alaskan waters forthwith.

The following delegates were elected to the republican national convention: William Grant, John G. Price, John G. Reid and R. J. Willis.

SPOONER SPEAKS

On His Resolution in Relation to Temporary Government for Philippines.

DEFENDS ADMINISTRATION

Shows That Under the Treaty We Had to Take the Islands.

GITES FILIPINO TREACHERY

And Thence Arouses the Ire of Senator Pettigrew, Agulnaldo's Chief Defender.

Washington, D. C., May 23.—In the senate today Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, made a notable speech in favor of his bill providing that upon the suppression of the insurrection in the Philippines the government of the islands shall devolve upon the president until such time as congress might direct otherwise. Mr. Spooner was almost too ill to stand, but defended with characteristic vigor and eloquence the policy of the administration in the Philippines, maintaining that no other policy in the circumstances was possible, and that none other could have been adopted without dishonor to the country.

Late in the afternoon Senator Carter, of Montana, presented the credentials of Senator Clark.

Mr. Wellington, of Maryland, presented the resolution adopted by the meeting Sunday evening last, to welcome the envoys from the South African republics. He gave notice he would speak on the subject Monday.

Mr. Allen offered a resolution requesting the president to transmit to the senate the translations of the constitution of the South African republic, and Orange Free State. Adopted.

A resolution calling upon the secretary of war for certain information regarding the situation of our affairs in the Philippines was passed.

The resolution by Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, directing the secretary of war to make a thorough investigation of the operations of the North American Trust Co., Havana, its organization and its relations to this government, was adopted.

Mr. Spooner then addressed the senate on his bill in relation to the suppression of the insurrection in the Philippines.

"No people," Mr. Spooner continued, "can give more convincing evidence of the highest devotion to liberty than was given by the American people when they demanded the withdrawal of Spain from Cuba. I did not say kindly to the acquisition of the Philippines by the treaty of Paris and at one time, I think, I might have said against the treaty's ratification. But I never have been able to see how President McKinley could have concluded a treaty with Spain that did not include the cession of the Philippines.

That sentiment, a sentiment for the acquisition of those islands, pervaded our entire people.

"It has been contended that we ought to have demanded that Spain relinquish to the United States the sovereignty of the Philippines," said he, "and then left them to be governed by their own inhabitants; but this could not have been done. We could not quit claim them to the world in the interest of philanthropy.

"There never has been an hour since the capitulation of Manila to our forces when, without dishonor to our country, we could have pulled away from Manila. Our duty there was to maintain our honor and protect the inhabitants of the city."

Mr. Spooner then referred to those senators who have seemed to exult sometimes in coupling the name of a half-breed Filipino with that of our own Washington, and read a portion of the proclamation issued by one of Agulnaldo's leaders warning the Filipinos in Manila that upon a specified date "all others would be exterminated without compassion, and the extermination of the army of occupation."

"Was there ever anything worse than that?" he demanded.

Mr. Pettigrew interrupted Mr. Spooner to declare that no such order or proclamation was ever issued.

Mr. Spooner replied it was contained in an official document issued by the government.

"I asked for and received from the war department six months ago, a copy of that very order," interpreted Mr. Davis, chairman of the foreign relations committee.

"I do not say such order was ever issued," shouted Mr. Pettigrew, "either by Agulnaldo or any of his subordinates."

"The trouble with the senator from South Dakota," replied Mr. Spooner, "is that everybody is a liar who does not help to make his case against the government."

"I protest against the use of such a document," urged Mr. Pettigrew. "It is false and ought not to be here."

"Well, it is here," retorted Mr. Spooner, "and it is going to stay here. Does the senator deny this is an official document?"

"Well, it may be an official report of General Oles," replied Mr. Pettigrew, "but it is a contradiction of other information from the Philippines."

"The senator may have source of information among his friends in the Philippines, but I may be permitted," anguished Spooner, "to doubt that they are better than General Oles."

Mr. Spooner then entered upon a discussion of the constitutional phases of the Philippine question. The so-called Philippine republic in existence when our troops first landed Manila was not such as to command our recognition, as has been claimed was due. There was in reality no Philippine nation and it would have been absurd for us to attempt to recognize that which is claimed to be such. But for the arrival of Admiral Dewey, Agulnaldo would have remained in Hong

The debate over the question of admission of women to the general conference was continued at some length and a majority of the speakers favored their admission.

Amid tremendous applause a motion to substitute the word "layman" for the word "baptized" was adopted, thus making a question which has long agitated the church for a generation was settled in favor of the admission of women.

The report on the organic law of the church as amended by the commission was then adopted by more than the necessary three-fourths vote. The constitution is approved and now goes to the 121st annual conference for final action. Adjourned.

TRouble AT A DANCE.

Shooting Affair Results in Several Being Wounded.

Salom, May 23—A serious shooting affair occurred last night at the home of John Wiggins, southeast of this city, the participants being John and Richard Duffy, brothers, and John Wiggins. The trouble was precipitated at a dance at the home of A. E. Beck, where John Duffy informed Wiggins that he would see him later.

After the dance Richard Duffy accompanied a sister of John Wiggins to her brother's home, and John Duffy followed shortly after. Upon reaching the Wiggins home the brothers pushed their way into the house, dragged Wiggins from his bed, and a fusillade of firing began, 27 shots
being exchanged.

Wiggins was seriously wounded, several shots taking effect, and Mrs. Wiggins received one of the bullets in the left side just below the heart.

The Duffys made their escape and warrants have been issued for them, and Sheriff Wells started in pursuit of them
this morning.

FORGETS HIS SON.

Old Man Moser Will Obey the Mandate of His Church.

Pekin, May 23—Benjamin Moser, the venerable and wealthy father of Sam Moser, the quadruple murderer of near Tremont, was in this city today on business connected with his son's farm near that place. In conversation with a gentleman here, he stated that he would do nothing for his son Sam. The old gentleman returned home downhearted by the torrified deed of his son.

It is stated that at the Omaha church at Morton yesterday notice was served on Benjamin Moser, father of Sam Moser, and all members of that church, that they must not in any manner attempt to provide money or assistance to Sam Moser in case of his being tried for the murder of his wife and children. It is their belief that a man who commits such a crime should be left to suffer the penalty.

THREE ARE DEAD.

Fatal Result of a Lemon Extract
Jag.

Galesburg, May 23—The excitement in Maquon over the sudden death of Thomas Clark and Isaac Austin from drinking lemon extract was further increased by the death of Martin Bailey from a similar cause this morning. Bailey was in Maquon Saturday night and purchased a quart of the liquor from a druggist there. Before he died he confessed about the liquor, and where he had procured it. United States Marshal Tripp of Peoria, visited Maquon
this morning and arrested George C. G.
Shoemaker and C. A. Wilcox, who are charged with selling the extract to Clark and Austin.

Saturday afternoon in Anna, the home of the bride, and it was the intention of the
